

but I would prefer to make art that tries to think positive utopian designs

but I would prefer to make art
within friendship and solidarity for all organisms
things
animals
humans
plants
without wasting resources

but I would prefer to make art
for a place
without government
without administration
without police
without prisons
without torture
without war

and I would prefer to make this art together
in self-governing structures